HAS NEW CZAR.

Admiral of Police Navy Is Sent to Fill Place of O'Brien.

Capt. Herman W. Schlottman, who Patrol: to-day moved into the Tenderioin as Czar. He relieves Capt. Stave OBrien, who has suffered a relapse of his former tilness and is off for an extended leave of absence.

Just what sort of a Czar Schlottman will be is a mystery. Tenderloiners tried to done out his possible running from his past performances, but these are very vague. Thus far Schlottman has figured as a good officer in outlying precincts like Kingsbridge and Jemaica. For the eight months he has been with the harbor force his deeds baven't brought him into print. He was appointed an acting captain a year ago by Commissioner McAdoo, and took his first desk in the Seventy-eighth

Is he starts on any pronounced course of conduct, it will be a new sensation for the Tenderloin, which has been without a real boss for a long time. When Steve O'Brien was brought down down City leband, ten weeks ago "Big Bill" Hodgins was sent up there

O'Brien was far from well. Two weeks of hard work in the Tenderioin pu him out, and since then various ser geants have been acting as captains in place of O'Brien.

eally temporary, since Waldo, as acting Commissioner, has not the power to make permanent transfers. Commissioner Bingham, however, will return Sept. 15, and it is likely that if schlottman makes good he will be given the root negmantic.
